Central City HIGH SCHOOL

Central City High School
Central City, Nebraska

1952

We dedicate this annual to the business and professional men of Central City who, through the years, have furthered the interest of our school and its activities by their loyal support. Under our democratic form of government our businessmen receive the benefits of free enterprise. We feel the privileges bestowed upon us under this economic system greatly aid us in our pursuit of Life, Liberty, and Happiness.

Totaling fifty six members, the Junior Class with an even number of boys and girls, excelled in extra curricular activities as well as scholastic ability. Regulars and letter-men on both football and basketball teams, soloists and members of small groups in both instrumental and vocal music revealed many talents.

The officers of this class are: President, Nina Emry; Vice President, Alice Wagner; Secretary, Reta Steuben; Treasurer, Clyde Sachtleben. The sponsors are Miss Sterup and Mr. Kennedy.

Nina Emry moved away after the first semester. Alice Wagner took over the duties of president and Wendell Faeh was elected vice president.

Special events for this busy class were the play "Off the Track" which was given November 20, 1951, under the direction of Miss Widman, and the Junior-Senior Banquet, held May 8, 1952.

The Sophomore Class of 1952 chose as its sponsor Mr. George Miller, the Principal of Central City High School.

Although upper classmen were predominate during the football season, a few sophomores gained recognition on the football field. Those boys receiving varsity letters were: Jerry Willhoft, John Hummel, and Bob Desch. Several other boys received reserve letters, and were captained by sophomore Jack Rodysill.

The basketball season also offered the sophomore boys another chance to prove themselves in athletics. The varsity team was made up of many sophomores. Those boys were: Bob Desch, Jack Rodysill, Milford Killham, Alford Killham, Jim Rusterholz, Don Rusterholz, and Martin Park.

Turning from athletics we find numerous sophomore boys and girls active in music. Many key positions were held by sophomores in both vocal and instrumental music.

Besides all this, members of this class participated in Pep Club, Y-Teens, F.F.A., G.A.A., and Hi-Y.

On September third, fifty-two green freshmen entered the doors of Central City High School. The upper classmen laughed up their sleeves at the bewildered freshies wandering aimlessly through the halls. At their first Freshman Class meeting the honor of being president was given to Bobbie Geck, who later moved to Scriber. Dick Larson succeeded him. Harold Malm found the seat as Vice President comfortable, and Barbara Suck was given the responsibility of secretary-treasurer. Mr. Christensen was chosen class sponsor. They have contributed to the extra-curricular activities, such as music groups, Y-Teens, F.F.A., G.A.A., and athletics. Though they are only "lowly Freshmen", they greatly admire the upper classmen; the mighty Juniors and Seniors. They eagerly await their turn in those ever important classes. All in all they are a pretty good class.

The Freshman Class is capably ruled by Dick Larson, president; Harold Malm, vice president; and Barbara Suck, secretary-treasurer, with the help of their sponsor Mr. Christensen.

G. A. A.

The G.A.A. has as its purpose the developing of a spirit of comradeship, good sportsmanship, and friendliness among students. They sponsor a point system which provides a basis for the awarding of honors. Points are awarded for participation and achievement in various activities, for service, and for individual work in athletics. Janet Yost received the cup for last year's high point award and Ramona Larson was runner-up for the pin.

Thirteen girls were awarded letters. Activities for this year included a hobo hike, candlelight installation of new members, volleyball and basketball tournaments, selling refreshments at basketball and volleyball games, spring hikes, picnics, and softball games. Lorraine McHargue, who was vice-president, became president second semester due to the graduation of Patsy Monson.

ONE-THIRD ARE ABSENT DUE TO STATE TOURNEY

Were you in school Friday, March 14? If you were you might have noticed that about one-third of your classmates were not. Yes, that's right, over 30 per cent or 70 pupils from Central City High school were absent that day. Thirty eight were excused.

Measles accounted for several of them, but the majority were in Lincoln watching the state tourney.

Seniors Plot Murders For April Fool's Day

Have you noticed any suspicious figures loitering in the halls of Central City High school? Characters who look like murderous criminals? If so don't get panicky and call the F. B. I. It's just the seniors living their parts of the senior play, "Home Sweet Homicide" to be presented the evening, April 1, at the high school auditorium.

"Home Sweet Homicide," as the name vividly suggests, is a three-act mystery.

Marion Carstairs, a charming widow in her thirties is a mystery story writer. Her chance to deal with a real murder comes when a strange lady is killed in the Carstairs neighborhood. The Carstairs children, Archie, Dinah and April, thinking that if their mother would only help solve the murder, she could certainly sell more of her mysteries. However, Marion being very busy and not wanting to become involved refuses, and the children take it upon themselves to find the murderer.

Lieutenant Bill Smith, who working on the case finds h self quite frequently in compa with Marion.

Suspects of the murder inclu such characters as the kind Cheringtons, Frankie Riley w his odd looking gray hat, Wa Sanford, whose hair hangs c stantly in his dirty face, p others.

Seniors portraying the char ters are: Marion, Jackie Linda Archie, Bill Mason; April, L Haddix; Dinah, Myrna Ohlm Polly, Mellissa Bolling; Wal John Park; Mrs. Cheringt Jeanne Greving; Mr. Cheringt Keith Knippenberg; Rupert, vid Erickson; Bill, J. C. Haus man; Sergeant O'Hare, D Ramage; Pete, Manning Bomb ger; Joella, Williamette Des Flashlight, Eugene Thom Slukey, Henry Brockman; W dy, Barbara Sinsel; Mag, Lore Morrison; Joe, Marvin Fu and Betty, Ann McCormick.

Choir

The vocal music department began the year with tryouts for the various music groups. When the groups were chosen, they planned and presented several school programs, a Christmas vesper, and pre-contest programs. The groups progressed rapidly and climaxed the year with the presentation of the operetta "Patience". The cast was chosen in the early part of March and with hard work mixed with fun produced a fine performance on May 6th.

Football

Under a new coach "Shad" Martogolio, the Bison opened the season by downing the Stromsburg eleven 21-6 on the Bison field. Hard running by Steuben was a main factor in the victory. The Bison lost their first conference tilt to Fullerton on the Warrior's field 32-12. Central scored on the first play of the game when Steuben passed to Scholl, covering 65 yards. The Bison made it two wins and one loss by defeating a stubborn Ravenna eleven 6-0. Fine defense by Haskins and Sinsel kept the opposition down. The Bison were minus Scholl and Bomberger because of injuries. Playing at York, The Bison lost their second conference game 12-0 on a muddy field. Hummel, substituting for Bomberger, played a fine game at center. On the Bison field the Seward Bluejays defeated the home team 21-7. The home team scored on the sixth play of the game. The Bison returned the kick for a T.D. Scholl carried for 86 yds., while Rice laid key blocks. The Bison lost to Gibbon 19-7 on the victor's field. Steuben who was injured in the Seward game saw limited action.

The Aurora Huskies tore the Bison apart in a 19-6 victory on the Bison field. The David City Scouts defeated the Bison 38-12 on the Bison field. Scholl, Sinsel and Haskins played good defensive games. Going to Albion the Bison received a 44-12 wholloping for the final game of the year. Bill Cosby played a fine offensive game, passing for both the Bison T.D.'s. Steuben and Bomberger did some fine work after recovering from injuries.

"51" Track Team

The Central city track team had a fine season, being beaten only at the Ord invitational meet. They made up for this by taking the conference and district meets and finishing as state champs. At the state meet, Glantz won the Gold Medal in the Discus 140'10"; Umphreys took 2nd in the 100 and 220 Yard Dash; H. Scholl, 3rd in the High and Low Hurdles; and E. Nelson, 3rd in the 440 Yard Dash. The 880 Relay team took 1st in class B. Time 1:33.1. Central had 35 points, Mitchell, "50" champs, had 30 points, and Lincoln Teachers' had 22 points.

R. Malm and E. Nelsen get a good handoff in 880 yard Relay at N.C.C. meet.

M. Bomberger finishes second and J. Ellenwood third in 880 yard run at N.C.C. meet.

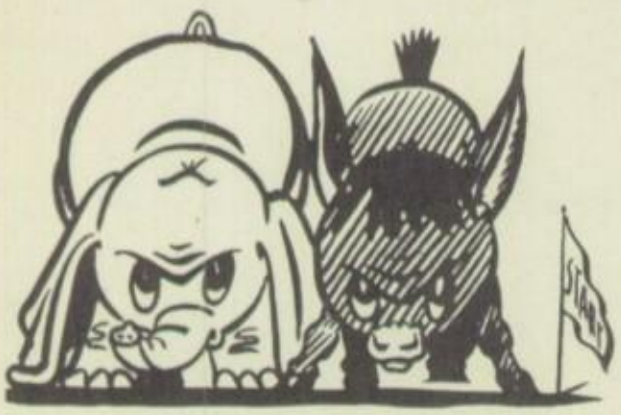
"52" Track Team

Scholl, the leading man in the Bison track team, was the only one of the "51" state champs back for "52". He scored all points but those of the relay at Ord and Hastings. He ran anchor in the relay. At the Conference meet Central took 3rd. York was 2nd and Seward was the champ this year winning all three titles in sports. Faeh got 3rd in the discus; Cohagan, 4th in the mile at 5:04.3; and Cosby, 2nd in the pole vault. The relay placed 2nd.

C. C. won a duet with Aurora, for the first meet of the year. The Bison got 4th in the Ord meet and 5th at Hastings. At the N. C. C. meet C. C. took 1st with 102 1/2 points; Aurora was 2nd with 46.

At the District track meet, Scholl took 1st in both hurdle events and in the discus. He placed 3rd in the broad jump and 5th in the shot put. Cohagan placed 4th in the mile, Milford Killham got 5th in the pole vault.

Harold Scholl, Central's only man to qualify for "State" placed 1st in both hurdle events in Class B.



Scholl finishes 1st in the low hurdles in 21.3 at N.C.C.

Milford Killham finishes 1st in the 220 in 25.1. Alfred Killham is 4th.

Basketball

Central City had one of the poorest records in the books, with only two wins. The Bison won the first game by defeating St. Edward 57-52. After the third game of the season, five juniors and three seniors were eliminated from the squad because of broken training rules. Playing in the county tourney with all reserve boys except, Bomberger, Nelsen, and Madison, the Bison defeated the Chapman five in the first game, but lost the remainder of the games due to inexperience and lack of height. Against teams that were far above their class the new members played on, and although the odds were against them they showed a fine spirit. What they lacked in height and experience they made up in the will to play. Continuing his cracking down on late hours, etc., Coach Kennedy eliminated two more members late in the season, making the list ten out and only two regulars left, Nelsen and Bomberger.

The second team under Coach Martoglio was weakened when six of his best boys were called to fill in vacancies in the varsity squad. Although a young and short team, they had fine ball handling. Eight of the team were Freshmen. Peterson, and Brown were on the starting five. Four were Sophomores, and one a Junior.

Promising material for future years are: Penny Peterson as Guard and Dick Brown as Forward. Both of them are Freshmen, and with experience can help C.C.H.S. Buckey Anderson, Eddie Yost and Jerome Heying are also fine prospects.

In the Sophomore class Martin Park, John Hummel, Mike McIlnay, and Clay Crites are also prospects for the future Bison. Martin saw limited action in several varsity games.

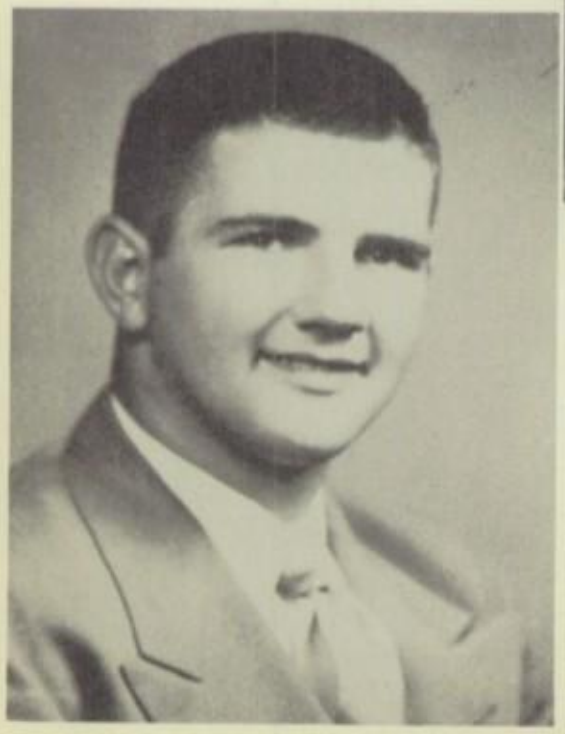
Football Royalty Reigns

King Neal Steuben and Queen Lois Haddix reigned over the 1951 football prom on November 30. Attendants were Lorraine McHargue and Ronnie Haskins. Williamette Desch and Dick Harlow, Jeanie Nielsen and Manning Bomberger were the other candidates chosen by the Green Pepperettes and C. C. Club. The King and Queen were crowned by Jackie Lindahl and Marvin Funk, respectively. Crown barriers were Vickie Glantz and Gary Bomberger. The proclamation was read by the royal page, Bill Raecke. Varsity letters were received by nineteen athletes.



"52" Stardust

"51" Chinese Garden

The night of May 8th, 1952, found the seniors enjoying the romantic setting of the "52" Junior-Senior Banquet. After both juniors and seniors were welcomed through a gateway of "Stardust" by two little cherubs, they found themselves walking on clouds and surrounded by stars and a moon above. From the center of the atmosphere Marcia Broom with her fairy wand cast a magic spell upon all; while from the stage a guardian angel kept a watchful eye on the night's festivities. Sophomoric angels passed the heavenly food, deliciously prepared by the junior mothers.

The seniors were especially appreciative of the juniors' efforts this year as they remembered the long hours spent preparing their own banquet when the honored "51" Seniors found themselves seated inside the stone wall of a "Chinese Garden" lighted by oriental lanterns. The garden, as are all oriental gardens at cherry blossom time, was a scene of beauty with its flowers and lily pool. Upon the stage and seated in a pagoda a buddha, fondly called "Poopsie" by the "51" Juniors, was the "Cynosure of neighboring eyes." Chinese coolies and maidens in kimonos served the oriental feast.

Commencement and Baccalaureate

Ending the year's activities the Seniors of "52" found themselves unbelievably marching down the aisle at their solemn yet joyous Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises. Rev. Carl Gustafson spoke at Baccalaureate and Mr. Emiel Christensen gave the Commencement address. Special music was provided by instrumental and vocal groups at both exercises. Dr. H. F. Greving, President of the Board of Education, presented sixty seniors with their diplomas at the Commencement exercises on the night of May 22. Ten members of the class received special awards and scholarships. Jeanne Greving was recognized as class valedictorian and Virginia Reeves as salutitorian. The following scholarships were received: Midland music to Ann McCormick, Carl Gray to Virginia Reeves, State Normal School to Patsy Monson, and Church College to Lois Haddix. The Regents Scholarship was awarded to David Erickson with John Park and Patsy Monson as alternates. Andy Smith, J. C. Hauserman, Keith Knippenberg, Lois Haddix, and Jeanne Greving received honorable mention.
